

Karnika Seth

Protection of Children on Internet

A Guide book on best practices for online safety with a special focus on India

978-93-5035-556-5 | Edition 2015 | Softcover | ₹250

Key Highlights

- A simple guidebook that provides useful information and tips on protection of children in cyberspace from various cybercrimes including trolling, cyberbullying, cyberstalking, child pornography and other forms of online child abuse
- Contains Illustrations, examples, case studies to explain various threats children face on Internet such as cyberbullying, cyber grooming and child pornography
- Discusses the existing Indian laws that protect children in cyberspace, particularly POCSO Act, 2012 and IT Act, 2000 and the National initiatives adopted in India to protect children from online abuse
- The author draws examples from other countries such as US and Europe including U K and initiatives made by International organizations to combat online child abuse
- Includes author's pertinent recommendations on various techno- legal and social measures that can be adopted for safeguarding children on Internet
- Written in a lucid manner, the book contains an easy glossary of important cyber terms for readers who may not be very familiar with technical jargon of cyberspace

About the Author

Karnika Seth is a renowned cyber law expert and Advocate practicing in the Supreme Court of India since 2000. She is the Founding Partner of Seth Associates, an established Indian law firm and heads Lex Cyberia, the cyberlaws practice division of Seth Associates. Ms Seth is also a renowned speaker and Visiting Faculty to law enforcement authorities in India, the National judicial Academy, the National Police Academy, Central Bureau of Investigations and the National Investigations Agency. She has received the Law Day Award on the Law Day from the Chief Justice of India in 2012. Ms. Seth is empanelled as legal expert to advise National Internet Exchange of India and the office of Comptroller of Certifying Authorities constituted under the IT Act. 2000. Her views have been solicited by the Parliament and the Ministry of information Technology for strengthening the cyberlaws in India. She is associated with the International Telecommunication Unions initiatives in India. She was a member of the Expert Consultation Group constituted by the Kerala State Commission for the Protection of Child Rights in 2014 for making recommendations on Legislative and Executive Action required to improve security of children in Cyberspace. She was appointed as information Technology Expert in the Committee constituted by National Internet exchange of India to allocate bharat domains.

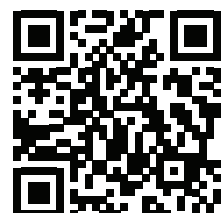

“ It is perhaps the first Indian book on this subject & such a book was imperative in the digital times as it will contribute substantially in creating cyber awareness to protect children, who will be our leaders of tomorrow...”

*Hon'ble Justice Altamas Kabir, Former Chief Justice of India
during the book release function at the Russian Centre for Science and Culture*

A lucid and comprehensive guide book for parents, children, educators, judiciary, lawyers, law firms, law libraries, law students, Police Investigation agencies, officers in Ministry of Women & Child Development, NGOs, International organizations, non- governmental bodies, industry associations, ITES companies, IT Professionals, Governmental agencies and officials of law enforcement.

For more information, please contact

UNIVERSAL LAW PUBLISHING (an imprint of LexisNexis®)
A-58, (Near Azadpur Metro Station)
G. T. Karnal Road, Delhi - 110033, INDIA
sales@unilawbooks.com

To know more, write to us at marketing@unilawbooks.com or visit www.unilawbooks.com